Campbellford Memorial Hospital recognizes outstanding staff achievements through Mission, Vision and Values Awards

Campbellford – March 12, 2021 – Campbellford Memorial Hospital (CMH) is proud of its outstanding staff and physicians. Our staff are the reason why people choose CMH to take good care of them and their family in their time of need.

The CMH Mission, Vision and Values Awards are our annual recognition and awards process, which recognize individuals and teams that are outstanding examples of people who live our Mission, Vision, and values in all they do.

There are five CMH Mission Awards, one for each of our values: Compassion – Marie Reid Bursary or 'Sunshine Award', Learning and Innovation Award, Excellence in Quality and Leadership Award, Group Achievement – Dr. Thomas Hackett Award and the Respectful Workplace Award.

CMH is proud to acknowledge the following recipients of these awards:

Compassion – Marie Reid Bursary or 'Sunshine Award' – Caitlyn Payne

Learning and Innovation Award – Jennifer McKelvie

Excellence in Quality and Leadership Award – Marilyn Petherick

Group Achievement – Dr. Thomas Hackett Award – Mental Health Team, MedSurg Unit, Housekeeping (Emergency Department)

Respectful Workplace Award – Kirk Smith

In addition to handing out our Mission, Vision and Values Awards last week, CMH also recognized our long service employees who reached specific milestones in 2020. We recognized 26 individuals who have contributed the equivalent of 370 years of service to CMH. Their dedication and commitment prove that CMH is a great place to work.
